

Understanding Behavior from the Outside In

A full day of in-depth training

Sponsored by: The Infant Development Association of California

January 25, 2008 / 9:00 am - 4:00 pm / Registration check-in 8:00 am
San Gabriel/Pomona Regional Center, 761 Corporate Center Dr., Pomona, California 91768

Description: Presented by Linda Brault, M.A., Early Childhood Consultant, this interactive session introduces a systematic method for examining challenging behavior in group environments. It also provides an introduction to the book Children with Challenging Behavior, useful as an ongoing resource. The presenter will weave real life stories into the workshop to bring the concepts to life. By using handouts, small group discussions, visuals, and videos, the session stays vibrant and fresh as important concepts are covered, including:

- Contributing factors to challenging behavior
- Who challenges you and why
- Your own emotional reactions to behavior
- Why children engage in challenging behavior
- Reflective tools and techniques
- How to use these practices successfully in the "real world"

Materials Included:

- The book Children with Challenging Behavior
- Handouts summarizing the ideas presented
- Sample tools
- Bibliography

What You Will Learn:

- Factors contributing to challenging behavior in young children.
- How external and internal factors impact behavior.
- Emotional reactions to challenging behavior.
- Strategies and tools that promote and utilize reflective thinking.
- Methods to develop positive behavior plans that are reflective and respectful of the child, family and early educators.
